

USASF: A Hip Hop routine can incorporate any street style movement that has evolved from the hip hop culture. Emphasis is placed on the execution of authentic style(s), originality, control, musicality, intricacy, uniformity and may incorporate purposeful elements and skills.

IASF: A Hip Hop routine incorporates authentic street style-influenced movements with groove and style. An emphasis is placed on group execution, including synchronization, uniformity and spacing. The choreography of a dynamic and effective routine utilizes musicality, staging, complexity of movement and athleticism. Distinctive clothing and accessories reflecting the Hip Hop culture must be worn.

OVERALL EFFECT

Communication/Projection, Audience Appeal and Appropriateness Judges will credit: genuine use of projection and energetic expression, including body energy; the fulfillment of the genre per the category description; has age-appropriate music, costumes and choreography that enhance the routine.

CHOREOGRAPHY

Musicality Judges will credit: how well the movement complements unique musicality and dynamics of the music; the originality of routine and concept. Movement that utilizes the music's accents, rhythm, tempo, phrasing, lyrics, style, etc.

Routine Staging / Visual Effects Judges will credit: how the choreography utilizes the stage exploring all directions/aspects and how the dancers are presented on the floor; the structure of challenging and unpredictable formations and seamless transitions. Incorporation of creative surprising visual effects developed through creative floor work, balanced use of features, group/partner work, level changes, and opposition.

Complexity of Movement Judges will credit: difficulty of the routine considering both movement and elements/skills (does not reflect execution); overall level, pace, and intricacy of movement such as footwork, use of high/low levels, varied tempos/rhythms within the movement, syncopation, direction changes, and stylization. Difficulty as it relates to the appropriate use of dancers' ability level.

TECHNICAL & GROUP EXECUTION

Category Style Execution Judges will credit: the dancer's ability to display the correct foundation and form effectively and continually throughout the routine. The understanding of correct stance, body placement, stabilization, control, and strength; groove, bounce, and authenticity of hip hop/street style.

Movement Technique Execution Judges will credit: the true development of the movement; noting the dancer's movement in terms of intensity, musicality, texture and nuance of the style.

Skill Technique Execution Judges will credit: demonstration of (not difficulty of) appropriate level skills/elements with correct approach, execution, release and completion of selected elements and skills.

Synchronization/Timing with Music Judges will credit: the team's ability to maintain strong synchronization and timing with each other and the music, displaying accuracy, clarity, and control within both movement and technical skills/elements.

Uniformity of Movement Judges will credit: how well the clarity of movement as a team is upheld, the consistent approach and commitment to the style and interpretation of movement as a group.

Spacing Judges will credit: the ability of the dancers to use spatial awareness to position themselves with correct distances between each other in and throughout all formations and transition pathways.